Other Information

Traveler's Cheques and Credit Cards
 Please exchange your traveler's cheque for cash in advance. Traveler's cheques are not accepted in most shops in Taiwan, whereas credit cards are rather popular. Visa, MasterCard, American Express, JCB, China UnionPay, Diners Clubs International are well-accepted. If you travel to the Taiwan countryside, make sure you prepare enough cash in case credit card service is not available.

Voltage and Power Socket
 Taiwan uses 110V or 220V electric current, and the frequency is 60Hz. Please note your electronic appliances specifications brought from abroad.
 The common power socket type is A, however a proper converter is suggested.

Tax and Tax Refund
 Commodity tax is usually included in the bill for purchases; no additional fees are charged. Standard receipts will be given after most purchases.
 If you wish to claim your tax refund, please shop at authorized Tax Refund Stores (TRS). With purchases totaling NT$2,000 or more in one store on a given day, you can get a tax refund at the airports or customs stations within 30 days of making the purchase or before you go through customs in the airport's departure hall.

Service Charge
 Most hotels and upscale restaurants will charge a 10% service charge.

Wireless Network
 Free wireless access is available in the airport and train stations, MRT stations, tourist information centers, and other public spaces in Taiwan.
 Travelers from abroad may apply for a free account with providers from their home countries or passport documentation.

Foreign tourists visiting Taiwan should pay attention to whether local hotels and hostels assigned licensed tour guides with practicing certificates and language ability to provide guide service to tourists. (Attached is an example of a practicing certificate.) If you encounter illegal guides, please make note of the tour group's itinerary, contact with the tourists, the name of the travel agency, etc., and provide this information to the Tourism Bureau by logging on our website (URL: http://taiwan.net.tw) and clicking "Contact Us (the Director General's Mailbox)" to report the occurrence to the Bureau.
